PROFESSIONAL SUMMARY

I am a Junior Software Developer from Generation Thailand, skilled in HTML, CSS, TailwindCSS, JavaScript, React, and GIT. Before this, I worked as a Medical Technician for over four years, which sparked my interest in the software used in hospitals and the automated machines that process patient results. My passion for gaming, technology, and fulfilling my childhood dream led me to pursue software development. I look forward to working together. Although I'm new to this field, my past experience has given me strong teamwork skills, the ability to work under pressure, punctuality, attention to detail, and a positive attitude.
